Order

Lemar Gant sues various prison officials for violations of his civil rights. Defendants

10 Bloomfield, Sandoval, Byrne, Hunt, Thrasher, Williams, and Pichardo have moved for summary

<sup>11</sup> judgment on the claims against them.<sup>1</sup> Gant filed an opposition to the summary judgment

12 motion, stating that he attached "exhibits (A) thru (W)" to his opposition, and that those exhibi

<sup>13</sup> demonstrate the existence of disputed material facts.<sup>2</sup> But no exhibits were filed.<sup>3</sup>

14 It does appear, however, that the defendants received the exhibits that were meant to be 15 attached to Gant’s opposition.<sup>4</sup> In the interest of expediency, I ORDER the defendants to file
16 exact copies of the exhibits attached to Gant’s opposition on or before Wednesday, May 2, 17 2018. The exhibits must be filed as a Notice in Response to Court Order.
